

Experience a God-centered program with opportunities to connect with your family in a meaningful way in a place you can call "HOME."

New Year's Family Retreat
 December 30, 2010 - January 2, 2011
 Speaker Jerry Redman

Visions, Dreams, and Everything in Between

We will explore the opportunities and responsibilities of the various age groups represented in a family, including children, parents, and even grandparents. What should we both experience and expect from each generation of life? What does God say about all this?
